

Afro-Boer Reservation Framework Policies, Procedures and Guidelines

Dear Patron: Thank you for your enquiry Should you wish to consider making a personalized reservation with us, please take note the framework information which we work within...

Afro-Boer is not a venue. We do not charge venue fees.
Our seating areas consists of:

a Baker's Café

(main restaurant area - currently still closed off from the bottom garden)

the private garden with informal picnic-style benches (accessible only from the Café Deli side)

the Café Deli & coffeeBAR take-away style area (which services the food and beverages to the garden with disposable cutlery and crockery)

the Green Room - a place to pause
(where we host the occasional soiree, cocktail evening, wine tasting and book launch event)

Our establishment follows a European café-style lay-out of small groups and tables, and have a turn-around policy of 3 hours per table.

Limited groups are accommodated where possible inside the Café, the Stoep at the Café, and in front of the Green Room. Reservations of these areas are subject to availability.

All these spaces are shared with passer-by's and no area is completely private and closed off.

On Saturdays, Sundays, and Public Holiday's our floor lay-out limits us to one group reservation of up to 12 persons in the morning, and one group reservation of up to 14 persons in the afternoon, subject to availability, weather depending, and current on-the-day reservation time-lines. From time to time we are able to increase the reservation numbers, should the date fall on a quiet afternoon mid week
We do not split a group into several separate different tables

Where possible, we place a 12 or 14 seater in "Die Wit Olifant" the bar-room in the Baker's Café, the green table in the centre of the Baker's Café, the Baker's Café Stoep and the seated paving area in the top garden by the white umbrellas, also on the Baker's Café side.

Making a Reservation

- A table of 12 - 14 persons will be required to have a pre-ordered menu, a set menu lay-out or alternatively have to follow one of the package options so as to prevent hold-ups to the flow of the Baker's Café kitchen.
- We do accommodate a 14 seater in front of the Green Room area, but only as a platter-style stand-around set-up, as the cafe kitchen and the green room kitchen do not share the same food options and possibilities.
- All group reservations and personalised. Menus and packages are confirmed and finalised via email: info@afroboer.co.za on a reservation sheet, which would require a reservation deposit.
- Should you wish to bring your own cake, food, or food gifts onto the premises, a R300 cake fee will apply once the product is opened or consumed.
- Cakes are made by us if pre-ordered in advance, unless arranged otherwise.
